

xDefenders and Unilink announce partnership to deliver information security solutions to the financial marketplace.

Unilink will resell the DefenderWall Security Appliance and Vulnerability Testing Services from xDefenders to banks and credit unions.

“By partnering with Unilink, we have access to hundreds of potential clients. The financial marketplace is ideal for our filtering, intrusion detection and testing solutions and Unilink has focused on financial for over 10 years.” - Jeff Thon of xDefenders.

“Through our partnership with xDefenders, we can offer more value-added services to our clients. These are essential security services for financial institutions.” - Lou Fuchs of Unilink.

xDEFENDERS of Fairport, N.Y. offers information security solutions to clients in Upstate New York.

Unilink of Pittsford, N.Y. offers a variety of information technology products to banking and credit unions across the USA.

For more information please contact Mike O'Brien at 585-425-2260 or visit www.xdefenders.com or www.unilinkinc.com.