

Zix Corporation and xDefenders, inc. Become Partners

Information security company to resell ZixCorp eSecure solutions

DALLAS and ROCHESTER, N.Y. — June 1, 2005 — Zix Corporation (ZixCorp®), (Nasdaq: ZIXI), a global provider of secure e-messaging, e-prescribing, and e-transaction applications and services, and xDefenders, inc., a provider of protection services for confidentiality, integrity, and availability of systems, networks, and information assets, today announced a reseller agreement. xDefenders will become a value-added reseller for ZixCorp's eSecure solutions, including ZixVPM® (Virtual Private Messenger) enterprise-wide email encryption service, ZixMail® desktop email encryption service, ZixAuditor® assessment tool, and ZixPort® custom branded portal solution.

"ZixCorp's suite of secure e-messaging products complements our dedication to implement trusted, reliable security services for our customers," said Jeff Thon, vice president of sales and marketing for xDefenders. "The customizable, easy-to-use solutions fit in well with our personalized approach to information security."

As a ZixCorp Diamond Partner, xDefenders will also receive access to sales and technical training, lead sharing, joint seminar and tradeshow participation, beta testing, exclusive discounts, and cooperative marketing opportunities.

"This relationship is a perfect fit. xDefenders' established financial and healthcare clients are the communities we focus on," said Jim Lesniak, vice president of eSecure sales for ZixCorp. "Plus, with its established base in small- to medium-sized businesses, we will be able to extend our reach and visibility to increase our sales in this viable market sector."
